Aarogya Clinics

Privacy notice for WhatsApp appointments

How we use your information

What we collect: your WhatsApp number and name, the patient name, age and gender, the reason for the visit, and anything you choose to share in the pre-visit form.

Why: to book and manage your appointment, send reminders you ask for, and share prescriptions and reports with you. We never use health data for marketing.

Who sees it: your doctor and the front desk at your branch. Messages travel through WhatsApp and our messaging provider, LazyApp, and are stored in India.

How long: appointment records are kept as required by medical records rules; chat data from this demo is deleted when the demo session ends.

Your rights (DPDP Act, 2023): access, correction and erasure of your data, and withdrawal of consent at any time. Reply STOP to stop all messages.

Grievance officer: privacy@aarogya-clinics.example
